Supervisor Sequanna Taylor to Join Winter Clothes Drive

Milwaukee – Supervisor Sequanna Taylor will attend a winter clothes drive event on Thursday, December 22 on the north side of Milwaukee.

Community leaders will gather for a group photo at 5:45pm on Thursday at the Victory Temple, 4700 N. 39th St.

"Edward's Greatness of Giving Back" was founded Edward Rodgers, Jr. when he was 12 years old. Now 15, Edward attends Rufus King IB High School.

2016 is Edward's third consecutive year of hosting a winter clothing collection and giving drive. For the first time this year, Edward's Greatness of Giving Back invited representatives from local businesses and community based programs to participate in this free event.

Supervisor Taylor and other community leaders are delivering donations of winter hats, gloves and socks to the Victory Temple on Thursday from 5:30pm to 7:30pm. There will be booths set up for organizational representatives to distribute information and answer questions about their organization.

All donated items will be given to families who attend the Salvation Army holiday feast at the Wisconsin Center from 11:00am to 2:30pm on December 25.
